First Editions[®] Double Mint[™] Gardenia

A compact and fragrant gardenia perfect for any small space.

St. Paul, Minn. (Spring 2013) – The fragrant, creamy white blossoms of First Editions[®] Double Mint[™] Gardenia add a heavenly scent to your yard. The two-inch, double flowers cover the plant in spring and will rebloom again in late summer or early fall.

This compact version of the iconic Southern shrub will grow to a maximum height of three feet, making it an excellent foundation or accent plant. Try placing Double Mint near a patio or window where you can enjoy its fragrance throughout the growing season.
