

NEW PLANTS. NEW SOLUTIONS.

FOR RELEASE SPRING 2013

CONTACT:

Kathleen Hennessy
Bailey Nurseries News Center
Axiom Marketing Communications
(952) 224-2939 ext. 20
khennessy@axiomcom.com

First Editions® Purple Sunset™ Ornamental Pomegranate

Season-long interest in the garden or in containers.

St. Paul, Minn. (Spring 2013) – Petite flowers and ornamental fruit make First Editions® Purple Sunset™ Ornamental Pomegranate a fun addition to your garden. This compact shrub produces bright orange flowers and small, dark purple fruits from spring through fall.

The dark green foliage makes the flower and fruit color pop. In the fall, the foliage changes to a birch yellow hue, adding even more color to your landscape or containers.

Bred by Plant Introductions, Inc, First Editions Purple Sunset Ornamental Pomegranate is an easy-to-grow shrub that will provide enjoyment all season long.

First Editions® Purple Sunset™ Ornamental Pomegranate

Punica granatum x 'PIIPG-I' PP21,031

Location: Full sun

Zone: 7-10

Height: 5-feet

Width: 4-feet

Fruit: Purple-black

Flower: Orange

Foliage: Dark green, birch yellow in fall

Look for First Editions Purple Sunset Ornamental Pomegranate in the purple pot at garden centers this spring.

###

For more information visit www.firsteditionsplants.com, or check us out on Facebook at www.facebook.com/FirstEditionsPlants.

Bailey Nurseries was founded in 1905. From 15 acres of stony hillside it has grown to one of North America's largest and most trusted nurseries. Today Bailey Nurseries serves more than 4,500 nursery retailers, landscapers and growers throughout the United States, Canada and beyond. Main offices are located in Newport, Minnesota, near the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, with other locations in Oregon, Washington and Illinois.